MINISTRY OF FINANCE (COMMUNICATIONS)

New Delhi, the 26th June 1953

S.R.O. 1355.—The President hereby directs that the following further amendments shall be made in the Rules for the guidance of depositors in the Post Office Savings Bank, namely:—

For rule 29 of the said rules and for the notes below it, the following rule and notes shall be substituted, namely:—

“29. Interest will be allowed until further orders—

- (1) On all accounts, other than those mentioned in rules 42, 44, 45, 45-B and 45-C, at 2 per cent. per annum on any balance not exceeding Rs. 10,000 in the case of accounts standing in the names of single depositors, or Rs. 20,000 in the case of accounts, standing in the names of two joint depositors both of whom are living; and at $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum on the remainder of the balance.
- (2) On accounts mentioned in rule 45-C, at one per cent. over the rate shown in item (1) above.
- (3) At the rate of $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum on all other accounts.

This interest will be allowed for each calendar month on the lowest balance at credit of an account between the close of the fourth day and the end of the month, provided that:—

- (i) interest shall be allowed only on sums of complete rupees, and shall be calculated to the nearest anna;
- (ii) no interest shall be allowed on an account for any month in which the balance at credit falls below Rs. 25 at any time between the fourth and the last day of the month;
- (iii) no interest shall be allowed on an account for any year in which the amount of interest for the year is less than eight annas;
- (iv) no interest shall be allowed on an account on any sum in excess of Rs. 15,000 if the account stands in the name of a single depositor or on any sum in excess of Rs. 30,000 if the account stands in the names of two joint depositors both of whom are living. From the first day of the month following the month in which one of the two depositors of a Post Office Savings Bank account standing in joint names dies, interest shall be allowed at the rate of 2 per cent. per annum on any sum not exceeding Rs. 10,000 and at the rate of $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum on the remainder of the balance not exceeding Rs. 15,000. No interest shall be allowed on any sum in excess of Rs. 15,000 from the first day of the month following the month in which one of the two depositors of a Post Office Savings Bank account standing in joint names dies.

NOTE 1.—When an order has been issued to close an account, interest ceases to accrue from the first day of the month in which the order is issued (See end of rule 33).

NOTE 2.—Interest on the account of a deceased depositor ceases to accrue from the first day of the month in which notice is issued to the person or persons recognised by the Postmaster General or the Head Postmaster (Sec rule 37) as entitled to receive the balance at credit of the account. No interest will be allowed on money deposited after his death in the account of a deceased depositor.

NOTE 3.—Interest will be allowed on the excess over the prescribed annual and maximum limits in the case of deposits contemplated in notes 3 and 2 under rules 10 and 11 respectively.

2. This amendment shall have effect and shall be deemed to have had effect on and from the 1st April, 1952.
